Annual Reporting Requirements for Charter Operators

The reporting requirements outlined in this document focus specifically on reporting required throughout Title 49, Chapter 13 of the Tennessee Code and State Board Rules related to public charter schools. This document is not exhaustive of all reporting requirements that public charter school operators (operators) are required to meet as a public school. Operators should coordinate with their authorizing LEAs to ensure they align with reporting requirements. Additionally, operators may subscribe to the department's newsletters for additional information and updates.
